

Sample E-Letter for CPR Riders to Send to Jewish Family and Friends

Friday September 15th is just around the corner -- Happy New Year: L'Shana Tovah

My Well Wishes to You . . .

I thought I'd drop you a note because the 2024 election season will soon be upon us, and I fear we'll make a mistake in casting our ballots to re-elect Joe Biden and Kamala Harris – a mistake many of us have come to regret back in 2020.

While a majority of Jewish voters are traditionally Democrats, an open-minded review of President Biden's record shows he is not one of the best friends Jewish people have ever had in the White House.

Most recently, a majority of Democrats in Congress and even Joe Biden, and much of the media has failed to condemn Democrat Representative Pramila Jayapal (WA-7) statement that Israel is a racist nation.

Additionally, Netanyahu has not been invited to Washington by the Biden administration since taking office again in December of last year.

And it seems we've have forgotten about the White House event with Harvard law professor Alan Dershowitz and New England Patriot's owner Robert Kraft at his side, when President Trump signed an executive order for the purpose of combatting anti-Semitism on college campuses.

This order recognizes for the first time Judaism both as a faith and as a nationality to protect Jewish students under Title VI. Title VI outlaws discrimination on the basis of race, color, and national origin by colleges benefiting from federal funding. The ADL welcomed the president's action.

Jewish voters would also be wise to note the outstanding pro-Israel record of Republicans. Thanks to them, the American-Israeli relationship was at its strongest point ever before Biden came to office.

What's at stake in 2024 for the Jewish people are the accomplishments made by Republicans that:

- now recognizes Israel's capital as Jerusalem AND moved its embassy there. For over 40 years, presidential candidates have promised to make Jerusalem Israel's capital, yet it was a Republican president who accomplished this.
- stopped labeling Jewish settlements in Judea and Samaria illegal;
- boosted Israeli security by recognizing Israel's control over the Golan Heights with Syria, which used chemical weapons on its own people to stifle dissent;
- tore up the Obama-Biden nuclear weapons deal with Iran;
- made possible the historic Abraham Accords Peace Agreement normalizing relations between Israel, the United Arab Emirates, and Bahrain for which Trump was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize three times.

Contrast this second-to-none pro-Israel record versus the Obama/Biden administration's support behind UN Security Council Resolution 2334. It condemned Jewish people living in their Biblical homeland, saying it violated international law.

Remember, too, the Obama/Biden administration did NOTHING to stop Iran's potential for building nuclear weapons targeted at Israel. Is there ANY reason to think Joe Biden and Kamala Harris would change this policy that poses an existential threat to Israel and the Jewish relatives of American Jewish citizens?

Before voting, Jews who are considering voting Democrat will be wise to realize the Jewish-friendly Democrat Party of their parents and grandparents is NOT the Democrat Party of today. Today, along with Joe Biden, Ilhan Omar, Rashida Tlaib, and Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, the New Democrat Party is the anti-Israel party.

This is why I feel Israel can't afford to have a president like Joe Biden, along with radical Democrats in Congress, kicking sand in Israel's face . . . or in the face of America's Jewish voters who support their national homeland. Republican presidential candidates all stand out as our true champions for peace-loving Jewish Americans who care about their proud heritage.

P.S. If you share my concerns about the anti-Israel, anti-Semitic positions of many New Democrat politicians, please forward my letter to other Jewish Americans, especially family members, friends, and people in your Synagogue.

P.P.S. Remember, this is the new Democrat Party that...

- has refused to condemn Antifa (including Joe Biden and Kamala Harris) as they have killed, burned, and destroyed many American cities.
- Democrat governors and mayors are ordering police to stand down and not arrest looters and arsonists.
- Kamala Harris has said that demonstrators will not cease, nor should they, and her staff had helped raise money to get many of the violent demonstrators out on bail, and many have continued their rioting.
- wants to defund the police.
- promises major tax increases.
- plans to pack the Supreme Court and add another 5-7 justices, which will destroy America's independent judicial system.
- will abolish the U.S. Senate filibuster, so that 50 Senators plus Kamala Harris' vote can now run over the other 50 Senators.
- refuses to condemn the anti-Semitism of Democrat leaders, such as Ilhan Omar, Ayanna Pressley, and Rashida Tlaib.
